

Prof. Peter-Tobias Stoll, Chair
Institute for International Law and European Law

Summer 2021

Seminar on EU trade and investment for sustainable development

The seminar will deal with recent EU international trade and investment agreements and trade policy initiatives. It will focus on how these agreements and initiatives aim at promoting sustainable development in global perspective. Inter alia,

- the EU agreements with Canada, China, Japan and Singapore will be studied.
- Also, EU initiatives to prevent deforestation and to address carbon leakage will be discussed.

Participation requires a basic understanding about international and European law.

Introductory meetings ("Vorbereitung")

- Tuesday, 2 February, 6 pm and Wednesday, 7 April 2021, 6 pm, online, access information will be provided

Distribution of topics

- Friday, 12 February, 9 am; Monday, 19 April, 9 am, online, access information will be provided

Seminar session

- The seminar session with the presentations and discussions will take place on July 1 and 2. Details will be announced in due course.

The seminar is open to law students of specialization areas (Schwerpunktbereiche) 2, 4, 5 and 9, for Erasmus exchange and Master students of related programmes and for doctoral candidates. It requires basic knowledges about German public law, EU law, international law, economic or environmental law and some English language skills. Successful participants will be afforded a language certificate (Sprachenschein). Participation in the seminar requires

- an application by mail to be sent to intecolaw@jura.uni-goettingen.de, indicating the name, mail-address, the level of legal and language skills and including a cv and
- the participation in one of the introductory meetings.

Prof. Stoll