

Monday, 18th July

Opening

11.00 Reception

11.30 Introduction
(Ilona Ostner)

Part I Sociological Approaches

12.00 Social Structure and Values. A Comparative Study on the Changed Importance of Social Classes (Daniel Scheuregger)
Discussants: Trudie Knijn; Patrick Ireland

13.00 Lunch

14.15 Europeanisation of Asylum Policies. The Development of Asylum Regimes in Germany, Poland and Sweden after the Treaty of

Amsterdam
(Doreen Müller)

Discussants: Patrick Ireland; Trudie Knijn

15.15 Coffee break

15.45 Immigration, Integration, and the Welfare State: Beyond the Cost-Benefit Calculus (Patrick Ireland)

17.00 Social Justice, Discourse and Welfare State Change. A Comparative Study of Pension Reform in Germany and Spain (Antonio Brettschneider)
Discussants: Philippe Pochet; Patrick Ireland

18.00 End of the first day

Tuesday, 19th July

9.30 Absent Fathers – More Cash than Care?

Determinants of Post-separated Fathering within Different Social Models. Germany and Sweden in Comparative Perspective
(Carina Stiefken)

Discussants: Trudie Knijn; Claire Annesley

10.30 Coffee break

Part II EU Policy

10.45 Towards a Precautionary Risk Policy in the EU?

A Policy-analytical Comparison of the Regulation of Mad Cow Disease and Transgenic Plants (Robert Fischer)

Discussants: Claire Annesley; Philippe Pochet

11.45 Coffee break

12.00 More Kin than Kind
(Trudie Knijn)

13.15 Lunch

14.30 European Attempts of Combating Poverty and Social Exclusion through Soft Policy

Coordination: The Case of the OMC Inclusion in France and Germany
(Sandra Kröger)

Discussants: Philippe Pochet; Claire Annesley

15.30 Coffee break

16.00 State Feminism in New Adult Worker Model Welfare States?
(Claire Annesley)

17.15 End of the second day

19.30 Barbecue (open end)

Wednesday, 20th July

9.30 Changing Views on the Influence of the EU on National Expenditure Policy. An Analysis of European Guidelines from 1957–2004
(Anne Karrass)

Discussants: Waltraud Schelkle; Philippe Pochet

10.30 Coffee break

Part III The Economic Dimension

10.45 Social Capital and Economic Growth. Assessment of the Cross-country Evidence (Felix Roth)

Discussants: Waltraud Schelkle; Trudie Knijn

11.45 Coffee break

12.00 Recent Research on European Integration and Social Policy
(Philippe Pochet)

13.15 Lunch

14.30 Extended Markets. A Way to Wealth or Welfare? (Philipp Maas)

Discussants: Waltraud Schelkle; Patrick Ireland

15.30 Coffee break and walk to the Old Town-hall

16.30 Guided tour in the Botanical Gardens
(open end)

Thursday, 21st July

9.30 How Compatible are the Lisbon Agenda and the

›Fiscal Philosophy‹ of the EU? A Political

Economy Analysis

(Waltraud Schelkle)

10.45 Coffee break

11.00 Internal and External Barriers to Cooperation.

The Macroeconomic Dialogue of the Cologne

Process

(Torsten Niechoj)

Discussants: Waltraud Schelkle; Claire Annesley

12.00 Lunch and farewell

13.30 End of the Summer School

Meeting

Location

State and University Library

Niedersächsische Staats- und

Universitätsbibliothek (SUB)

Seminar Room 1

Platz der Göttinger Sieben 1

37073 Göttingen

Contact

Uschi Brand

Postgraduate Programme

›The Future of the European Social Model‹

Humboldtallee 3

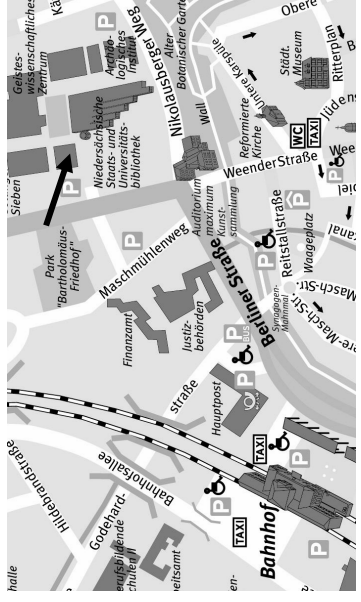

37073 Göttingen

Email: ubrand@uni-goettingen.de

Phone: +49 551-39 7405

Fax: +49 551-39 7200

WWW: www.uni-goettingen.de/esm

Georg-August University
Göttingen

Summer School 2005

Göttingen,
18th-21st July 2005

Postgraduate Programme
›The Future of the
European Social Model‹