Auswertungsbericht Lehrveranstaltungsevaluation an die Lehrenden

English version below

Sehr geehrte/r Frau/Herr Dr. Theiner,

Sie erhalten hier die Ergebnisse der automatisierten Auswertung der Lehrveranstaltungsevaluation zur Veranstaltung Conflict and Cooperation in International Relations.

Im Auswertungsbericht werden die Histogramme, Mittelwerte und Standardabweichungen aller einzelnen Fragen aufgelistet.

Die Mehrzahl der Fragen wird mit Angaben auf einer 7-stufigen Skala von "trifft nicht zu" bis "trifft zu "beantwortet. Dabei kennzeichnet die Auswahl auf der rechten Seite (trifft zu) aus Sicht der Studierenden eine maximale Veranstaltungsgüte, die Auswahl auf der linken Seite (trifft nicht zu) eine minimale Veranstaltungsgüte. Dies gilt in fast allen Fällen. Es gibt vereinzelt Fragen, bei denen das Optimum in der Mitte der Skala liegt.

Am Ende dieses Berichts finden Sie die handschriftlichen freien Kommentare als gescannte Bilder, soweit die Studierenden solche Kommentare abgegeben haben.

Unter http://www.uni-goettingen.de/de/ergebnisse/484416.html finden Sie etwa vier Wochen nach Ende des Semesters zudem das Gesamtevaluationsergebnis Ihrer Fakultät, das Sie ggf. mit Ihrem persönlichen Auswertungsbericht vergleichen können.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen

Dear Ms/Mr Theiner,

Please find enclosed the results of the automated analysis of your course Conflict and Cooperation in International Relations.

The analysis report lists the histograms, averages and standard deviations of each question.

The majority of the questions reflect student responses on a 7-step scale ranging from "does not apply" to "applies". Marks on the right side (applies) indicate a high grade for the course from the students' point of view, marks on the left (does not apply) indicate a low grade for the course. However, please note that although this is almost always the case there are a few questions where the optimum grade lies in the middle of the scale.

At the end of this report you can find the written comments as scanned images, where the students made such comments.

You can also find the summary analysis for your faculty under http://www.uni-goettingen.de/de/ergebnisse/484416.html about two weeks after the end of the semester. This summary analysis you can compare with your personal analysis, if required.

Kind regards,

Your Evaluationteam
