

CHILDHOOD AND ADOLESCENCE IN ANGLO-SAXON ENGLAND

Symposium, 20 June 2014

English Department/Seminar für Englische Philologie
Venue: Historische Sternwarte, Geismar Landstraße 11

Prospective Conference Programme

Friday, 20 June 2014

- 9.00 am Winfried Rudolf (Göttingen) – Words of welcome
- 9.15 am Andy Orchard (Oxford University) – The Disputatio Pippini cum Albino – Solving and resolving Alcuin’s educational dispute
- 10.00 am Shu-han Luo (Yale University) – “Ic on wonge aweox”: Childhood and growing up in the Exeter Book Riddles
- 10.45 am Coffee Break
- 11.00 am Sally Crawford (Oxford University) – Keeping busy: the materiality of Anglo-Saxon children’s activities in text and context
- 11.45 am Peter Stokes (King’s College London) & Winfried Rudolf (Göttingen) – Anglo-Saxon children and manuscripts
- 12.30 pm Lunch Break
- 2.00 pm Richard North (University College London) – Hrothulf’s childhood and Beowulf’s: a comparison
- 2.45 pm Daniel Anlezark (University of Sydney) – Children in Old English biblical poetry
- 3.30 pm Coffee Break
- 4.00 pm Joyce Hill (Leeds University) – Childhood in the Lives of Anglo-Saxon saints
- 4.45 pm Susan Irvine (University College London) – Final discussion & summary
- c. 5.30 pm End of session
- 6.00 pm Visit of an exhibition of English manuscripts and early printed books at the old SUB Göttingen
- 7.30 pm Conference Dinner at Restaurant Gaudi (Rote Straße 16)